

10 Good Habits for Successful Home-based Learning Experience

Being Ready

At least a week before your HBL is scheduled, make sure you have the correct device and software that meet the technical requirements. Test your login passwords. Seek help early to ensure readiness.

Being Early

To enjoy a smooth HBL experience, get yourself ready by turning on your computer or device 15 minutes before the HBL session to make sure everything is working e.g. Internet connection.

3 Being Persistent

Read the instructions of the learning activities carefully and carry out the activities till completion. Do not stop midway or give up. Always complete your tasks.

4 Being Helpful

If you have successfully completed your HBL tasks, help your friends who are facing difficulties.

5 Staying Focused

Do not wander to other sites or activities that are not part of your HBL task. Stay focused.

Being Timely

Set aside time for your HBL activity. Don't leave everything until the last minute. Complete your online as well offline tasks on time.

7 Being Consistent

Do not change your HBL schedule set by your teacher. Try to ensure that it complements your schedule at home.

Being Engaged

Shun distracting activities such as non-academic chats with friends. Keep your mobile phones in silent mode. Find a comfortable and conducive spot to carry out HBL.

9 Being Responsible

Always start and end your HBL activities properly. Check your work before submission. Ensure that you have followed all the given instructions. Log off from the Internet and turn off your computer.

10 Being Responsive

Whenever you face any issues while completing your HBL tasks, seek help immediately. Give feedback to your teacher about your learning experience.
