International Student Applicant – Please answer the following questions (Please circle one)

(Applicable for admission to school for 2009 onwards)

1. Is your admitting child a Dependent / Immigration exemption Order (IEO) Pass holder? (YES/NO)
2. Is either one of the admitting child's parent a Singaporean or Permanent Resident? (YES/NO)
3. Are the admitting child's parents S or R pass holders? (YES/NO)

a) If your answer to the above is either YES for (1) or (2), your child may be exempted from taking the Admissions Exercise for International Students (AEIS) test conducted by the Ministry. However, the school may conduct the placement test to ascertain a suitable level for the child.

b) If your answer is either NO for all or YES for (3) only, you are required to take the Admissions Exercise for International Students (AEIS) centralised test conducted by the Ministry of Education (MOE). The AEIS centralised test will comprise English and Mathematics and will assess the applicants' English literacy, numeric and reasoning ability. Please apply via the following website:

<http://www.moe.gov.sg/education/admissions/international-students/>

Please refer to the abovementioned website for the updated AEIS Tentative Dates and Events schedule when applying.

If you miss the AEIS test dates, you will have to take the Qualifying Test at the Civil Service College at the following website:
